The Revelation of John

By SHIRLEY JACKSON CASE

*Professor of Early Church History and New Testament
Interpretation in the University of Chicago*

The central idea of the book is to explain the meaning of Revelation as its author intended it to be understood by those to whom it was first addressed. Few people know when or why it was written, and its specific reference to a millennium has made it much quoted in support of strange theories about the imminent end of the world.

The volume has been prepared especially to meet the needs of the preacher and the layman who desire a popular rather than a highly technical treatment of the subject. Especial attention is given to the explanation of such items as the "Beast," the anticipated end of the world, the millennium, and the new Jerusalem.

Christian Faith for Men of Today

By E. ALBERT COOK

Professor of Systematic Theology in Howard University, Washington, D.C.

This volume contains a clear and reasonable interpretation of life from the Christian point of view, and some definite formulation of those beliefs that have proved most effectual in the development of individual character and in the promotion of the welfare of society. Professor Cook believes that Christianity is the religion which best meets the needs of all races and classes. The convenient arrangement of the material in numbered paragraphs, the valuable appendixes, and the general systematic treatment of the subject commend the book as a popular text for college men and women and for adult classes and clubs as well as for general reading.
